DR. WILLIAM POLK AS CHIEF ORATOR

Northumberland U. D. C. Preparing for Celebration of Jefferson Davis's Birthday.

FISHING PROSPECTS POOR

Trappers So Far This Season Have Failed to Pay Expenses. Northern Neck News.

[Special to The Times-Dispatch.]
Lancaster, Va., April 20.—The LeeJackson Chapter, of the Daughters of the Confederacy, of Northumberland is making extensive preparation for the celebration of the anniversary of the birth of Jefferson Davis on the 3d of June. Dr. William M. Polk, son of General Leonidas Polk, and at present dean of the medical school of Cor nell University, New York, will be the principal speaker on the occasion. Mr. Kinsey, the Bent Town Band of the Baltimore Sun, has consented to read some of his original poems on the occasion. A fine dinner will be served the veterans and the invited guests, and a great crowd is expected to be members of Lebanon Baptist The members of Lebanon Baptist Church in the northwestern part of Lancaster are making extensive prepa-rations for the meeting of the Northern Neck Baptist Sunday school convention. which will meet there next month. An claborate program has been arranged, in which the Rev. Wayland F. Dunaway, D. D.; the Tiev. George W. Beale, D. D.; the Rev. J. B. France, the Rev. Frederick W. Claybrook and others fishing grounds of the Rappahanneck and Great Wicomico Rivers, as well as those along the shores of the Chespeake Bay. The run of shad, herring and other edible fish has thus far wen very small and the trappers have failed to clear expenses. Fish packers have been unable to secure fish enough to justify them in employing the usual number of hands, and consequently all branches of the business are suffer-Those engaged in the business say that it has ben many years since the fishermen have experienced such bad season. Various theories have seems to explain fully the unsatisfaclie Instruction, is making a trip "Bury me in the sand. Don't ship through the counties of Northern Neck me East." The body is being held at examining the sanitary condition of the undertaking parlors of C. S. Bundsthe school bettelling. lie Instruction, is making a trip through the counties of Northern Neck Some of the schools of this region have closed for the session, but nearly all the graded and high schools will run for a full eight-months form.

Captain John D. Luttrell, of North-

were married at the Methodist par-sonage here Wednesday, the ceremony

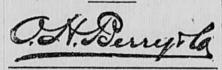

Mrs. Margaret Anne Luckham, wife fo C. C. Luckham, Sr., died several days ago at the home of her husband, near Irvington in the fifty-sixth year of her age. She is survived by her husband, eight children, four brothers and one sixter. The remains were taken to her old home in Richmond County, and the result of a difficulty between Sheriff J. R. Doset and Hobdy Taylor, youngest son of William Taylor. None of the other wounded are believed to be in a serious condition. interred in the buryground at Farn- serious condition.

Labor Leader is Found Dead.
[Special to The Times-Dispatch.]
Los Angeles, Cal., April 20.—George Gunrey, for over fourteen years a member of the executive board of the International Molders' Union, and reclarational Molders' Union, and reclarat and metal workers in Los Angeles in getting next to. Soft, clinging fabrics, cut on easy lines and made to fit so that the wearer looks like a human warer looks like a human

GRIM EVIDENCE OF MAN'S SUICIDE

Captain John D. Luttrell. of Northumberland County, has just celebrated the eighty-second anniversary of his birth. He represented Northumberland in the House of Delegates when also have the sided over that body, and when Judge Cavdwell, now a member of the Sucardwell, now a member of the Supreme Court of Appeals, was cutting his eye-teeth in legislative matters. Captain Luttrell resides near Lottsburg, on the Potomac River, and is still in vigorous health. He will be an honored guest at the annual meeting of the Daughters of the Confederacy to be held at Heathsville on the Sd of next June.

Dr. A. C. Fisher, of Richmond Coun
Dr. A. C. Fisher, of Richmond Coun
Dr. A. C. Fisher, of Richmond Coun
Sand two brief notes addressed, much the pocket of an the pocket of an the pocket of an elegation of the pocket of an expensive suit of clothes, carefully folded and laid on the end of the pier at Sunset Beach, are the birs of grim and expensive suit of clothes, carefully folded and laid on the end of the pier at Sunset Beach, are the birs of grim and expensive suit of clothes, carefully folded and laid on the end of the pier at Sunset Beach, are the birs of grim and expensive suit of clothes, carefully folded and laid on the end of the pier at Sunset Beach, are the birs of grim at the Italian palace of Mrs. John Mrs. Decosta surrendered her nare art objects in his grandfather's widner at the Italian palace of Mrs. John Mrs. John Mrs. John Mrs. Decosta surrendered her nare at objects in his grandfather's delection, and he is a frequent visitor at the Italian palace of Mrs. John Mrs.

l of next June.

Dr. A. C. Fisher, of Richmond CounC, representing the State Board of lealth and the Department of Pub-the school buildings and grounds with a view to making reports on the same to the central offices in Richmond.

Chuch, awaiting instructions from his relatives.

Row belonged to a number of clubs being performed by the Rv. J. C. Hve.

Judge Goodnight, it is reported to-

WOMAN IS ARRESTED.

Coast particularly because of the fact that he directed the strike of the iron and metal workers in Los Angeles to an angeles to an angeles to an an angeles to taken to the hospital, and made no statement previously. Physicians enand metal workers in the Angeles in taken to the hospital, and lines, 1910, the tense, bitter feeling of which statement previously. Physicians was felt all over the country.

Gold Medal, London, 1911

Largest Sale HIGH-GRADE Tea in World

The REASON why Ridgways Tea is the WORLD'S FINEST, is, that it is grown in the world's finest tea gardens, and cured and packed in such manner that the natural flavor is retained in the teacup. Try itthen you'll know.

Three Standard Grades "H.M.B." $1.00 lb. "5 O'Clock," 75c. lb. Capital Household, 50c. lb.

In Sealed Air-Tight Quarter, Half and Pound Pkgs. All Righ-Class Grocers Order Trial Package

TO-DAY I

C, W. ANTRIM & CO., DISTRIBUTORS,

HEIR TO FORTUNE EXPECTED TO MAKE

nations are already forming in the wearer looks like a human being, not a fashion plate.

Suits in cool, fresh gray, novel blue effects, new tans and browns and odd but attractive mixtures.

$15 buys a good one, and every dollar added adds to the value, up to $40.

We can fit you to-day.

We can fit you to-day.

Morgan collection will pass into the possession of the city.

"It is a signatic thing," said one of the trustees, "too great a collection for any individual to hold—only Mr. Morgan odd ever have got it together, and no other private individual will ever again succeed in gathering such a one. Any great nation might be proud of it as it stands, and if there was any grave danger of it being broken up no group of millionaires could better provide for grateful remembrance than by contributing the fund necessary to preserve it intact for their city or country."

Aside from the interest in the new head of the Morgan house, Junius Spencer Morgan, Jr., and grandson of the financier, is attracting attention on all sides because it is evident from the terms of the possession of the city.

"It is a gignatic thing," said one of the trustees, "too great a collection will possession of the city.

"It is a gignatic thing," said one of the trustees, "too great a collection for any individual to hold—only Mr. Morgan and no other private individual to hold—only Mr. Morgan and no other private individual to hold—only Mr. Morgan and no other private individual to hold—only Mr. Morgan and no other private individual to hold—only Mr. Morgan and no other private individual to hold—only Mr. Morgan and no other private individual to hold—only Mr. Morgan and no other private individual to hold—only Mr. Morgan and no other private individual to hold—only Mr. Morgan individual to hold—only Mr. Morgan could ever have got it together, and no other private individual to hold—only Mr. Morgan individual to hold—only Mr. Morgan could ever have got it together, and no other private individual to hold—only Mr. Morgan could ever have got it together, and no other private ind because it is evident from the terms of the elder Morgan's will that he desired his grandson to be trained o uphold the family traditions in the world of finance.

Young Mr. Morgan, who bears the name of the original Morgan, J. P. Morgan's father, has but lately attained Prominent Resident of Harris
Prominent Resident Office Harrisburg, Pa., Ends Life Near

Los Angeles.

[Special to The Times-Dispatch.]

Los Angeles, Cal., April 20.—Sixteen cents—three five-cent pieces and a penny—a poem to the "Moneyless Man," and two brief notes addressed, "Dear Margie," found in the pocket of "Dear Margie," found in the pocket of "Dear Margie," found in the pocket of the near a grind, goes in for athletics, and has even been arrested in quiet Cambridge for speeding his motor car. Though destined ultimately to become head of the house of Morgan, care is also being taken with his art education, he having taken several courses in the fine arts under distinguished Harvard professors. His room at Breck Hall, too, are widened at $10 and a bunch of keys.

With Polito, Mrs. Decosta was returning from a visit at the home of her brother in Sixth Street. They were walking slowly through clay Street when the negro suddenly stepped from a shadow, and pointing his weapon at the woman, commanded "hands up." When Mrs. Decosta surrendered her rare art objects in his grandfather's handbag, he grabbed it and ran through handbag he grabbed it and ran through handbag he grabbed it and ran through handbag he grabbed it and ran through hands a specific control of the house of Morgan, care is also being taken with his art education, he having walking slowly through the house of her brother in Sixth Street. They were walking slowly through the heavy walking and they have here.

[Special to The Times-Dispatch.]
Hartford, Conn., April 20.—The contents of the will of the late J. P. Morgan were thoroughly digested here, the city of his birth and where the finan-cier and several members of his family are buried. Notwithstanding the beare buried. Notwithstanding the be-lief prevalent in New York that Mr. Morgan's great art treasures will go to the Metropolitan Museum, it is the think that the memorial had been ulti-mately intended by Mr. Morgan to mately intended by Mr. house some of his pictures. Mr. Morgan to tion in the lower valley, and the levee at Ward's Lake in Gohoms Coun- is no doubt about the confirmation bety! gave way.

About 4,000 acres of farming land that the volume of water coming down the Mississippi River was greater than ever before, C. McD. Townsend, president of the Mississippi River Commission, to-night declared the levees and it was while occupying this office are in better condition to care for the flood than they have ever been.

The gauge here registered the every season will known in the county. The gauge here registered the every season will known in the county. The gauge here registered the every season will known in the county.

WARNS AGAINST UNITED STATES. Versity of Virginia.

The term of Thomas E. Wailace as Ugarte, who is conducting a personal campaign against the United States, spoke here last night and urged the recessity of all Latin-America uniting to prevent the absorption of the various republics by the United States, He declared that the United States was promoting revolutions and overthrowing the Presidents of the smaller republics. Ugarte was cheered by an excited audience, which escorted him to his

ALMANAC.
April 21, 1913.
HIGH TIDE:
Morning ... 4:12
Evening ... 4:57

EXPORTING OF CATTLE BRITISH PROTEST FALLS OFF RAPIDLY

Washington, April 20.—The United against $33,000 from this country. The States was exporting more than thirty-inumber of beef cattle in the United States in 1907 was 51,500,000; to-day it is 36,000,000. six years ago as it sends abroad today, as shown by statistics made public to-day by Secretary Redfield, of the

The United States surpassed its ri vals, however, in prices obtained, hav-ing received last year for beef exported an average of 11.67 cents a pound, against 4.38 for Argentina, 4.93 for Australia and 5.26 for New Zealand beef.

Intions are already forming in the Street to take away, if possible, some of the business which has been exclusively enjoyed by the Morgan house. The fact was pointed out to-day that if Mr. Morgan elects to retain full ownership of the art collection, he will be under the necessity of paying an inertiance tax upon it amounting to entire two and a half millions dollars, which would by that much further depited his working capital, $2,000,000.

Will Not Discusse and a publication of the business which has been exclusively enjoyed by the Morgan house. The fact was pointed out to-day that if Mr. Morgan elects to retain full ownership of the art collection, he will be under the necessity of paying an inertiance tax upon it amounting to allow two and a half millions dollars, which would by that much further depited his working capital, $2,000,000.

Will Not Discusse and the product and the present discal to day by the part of the business which has been exclusively enjoyed by the Morgan house. The fact was pointed out to-day that if Mr. Morgan elects to retain full ownership of the art collection, he will be under the necessity of paying an inertiance tax upon it amounting to allow two and a half millions dollars, which would by that much further depited his working capital, $2,000,000.

Will Not Discusse of the Metropolitan Museum would discuss the probabilities for publication, but there was a general agreement among them that ultimely the working capital, $2,000,000.

Wone of the much further depote the necessity of paying an interval end and the present discal working capital, $2,000,000.

None of the much further depote the necessity of paying an interval end and the present discal working capital, $2,000,000.

None of the members of the board of the present discal particles and to decrease all per cent statement that while the population of the present discal year approximates $800,000.

The interval of the art collection for the present discal year opported to day by the present discal year approximates $800,0

WOMAN HELD UP AT PISTOL'S POINT

Returning Home With Escort Unique Social Organization, of When Confronted by Negro, Who Escapes With Handbag.

Mrs. Mary Decosta, of 416 West Clay Street, and her escort, S. A. Polito, of 611 East Broad Street, were held up ly before 12 o'clock in Clay Street, be-

Boston, Mass., April 20 .- Joseph A Row belonged to a number of clubs and fraternal organizations.

Some of the schools of this region have closed for the session, but nearly all the graded and high schools will run for a full eight-months term. Miss Alien Poole, who taught the primary grades in the Ottoman graded and high school during the session just closed, has gone to Pittsburgh, Pa., to accept a lucrative position in one of the city schools there for the rest of the session.

Warren Pierce and Miss Annie Brown were married at the Methodist parsonage here Wednessays the contents and fraternal organizations.

Row belonged to a number of clubs and fraternal organizations.

Both Methodist permanent home operations during the last six years—operation of many that the famous pictures will have their permanent home operations during the last six years—gan's cousin, expressed great gratin—cation over this provision of the will, although it is lacking in definiteness, and is positive that the treasures will have their permanent home operations during the last six years—cation over this provision of the will, although it is lacking in definiteness, and is positive that the treasures will have their permanent home operations during the last six years—cation over this provision of the will, although it is lacking in definiteness, and is positive that the treasures will open of the grounds.

Franklin, Ky., April 20.—Judge I. H. Goodnight, magistrate of the police court here, died to-night of injuries he suffered in a shooting affray at the fair grounds last night.

James Taylor, who, among several opinion of many that the famous pictoures will have their permanent home operations during the last six years—curred will have their permanent home operations during the last six years—curred in Hartford. Dr. Goodwin, Mr. Mor.

Some of the session, just closed, the famous permanent home operations during the last six years—curred in Hartford. The famous cation over this provision of the will, although it is lacking in Hartford. The Mor.

Some of the session ju Cahalan—the record-breaking surgical patient, who has undergone thirteen operations during the last six years which the financier spent so much time and money, and several of the trustees of a kidney from a live sheep. The marriage took place appropriately on the sixth anniversary of the day Mr. Cahalan received the injury that led to his long series of operations.

He was a long-distance runner, and was competing in the 1907 B. A. A. dinners, t sistant supervisor of the city play-pointment at Wilmington.

GREEN FOR POSTMASTER.

Wilmington, N. C., April 20.—Advices from Washington stated that Congressing of Flood.

Memphis, Tenn., April 20.—Missising of Flood.

Memphis, Tenn., April 20.—Missising of Flood.

Memphis, Tenn., April 20.—Missising of Flood.

Man Godwin, at the request of President Wilson, had decided to recommend of the nation. In a critical situation that H. McL. Green be appointed posthe showed marvelous penetrative

On the Mississippl shore a private and at this stage in the matter, there

ing made. The struggle for the attractive job

The gauge here registered 19.3 at 6 o'clock to-night, a rise of threetenths in twelve hours.

that he became so well known throughout the county. Mr. Green is a successful man and is well known in the local business world as well as political circles. He is a bother in E. A. Alderman, president of the Uni-

Argentine Agitator Advises All LatinAmerica to Unite.

Antofagasta, Chile, April 20.—The Argentine poet and agitator, Manuel Ugarte, who is conducting a personal the next week. postmaster has already expired, and it is expected that unless something Manuel assume the duties of the office within Ugarte was cheered by an excited audience, which escorted him to his hotel. He left for Valparaiso to continue his propaganda.

THE TIME THER THE WEATHER

Forecast: Virginia and North Carolatic turn. She was familiarizing herbatic and warmer.

The girl was found in company with Joseph Ross, aged twenty-five years, one of the participants in an acrobatic turn. She was familiarizing herbatic turn. She was familiarizing herbatic and warmer.

Self with the act and intended to appear in it in a Baltimore theatre this week. The girl disappeared from her home in Williamsport Sunday night.

LITTLE IS HEARD OF CORSAIR CLUB

Which Morgan Was Member.

[Special to The Times-Dispatch.] New York, April 20.—Tucked away in the will of the late J. Pierpont at the point of a pistol last night short. Morgan was a truy paragraph by which the financier bequeathed to each Harvard. He is a tail and slender an unidentified negro. When the couple was ordered by the highwayman to token of my personal affection for them. a piece of silver of the value them, a piece of silver of the value of $1,000, to be selected and purchased by the executors of my will."

Ex-senator Chauncey M. Depew, a charter member of the Corsair Club, told The Times-Dispatch about this unique body, of which little ever was heard. Mr. Depew explained that he is one of three survivors of the twelve charter members who formed the club, with Mr. Morgan, twenty-seven years "And The others of the original twelve living are William Rockefeller ago. and Joseph H. Choate.

"The Corsair Club was the one that Mr. Morgan loved the best," remarked Mr. Depew. "He liked it because, composed as it was, of men in whom the financier had the utmost confi-dence, Mr. Morgan was able to discuss, in a quiet, informal way, the grave affairs of the day, or enjoy relaxation of a lighter vein,

"It is hard to recall the original celve men who formed the club. twelve men twelve men who formed the club, who was killed by a shot alleged to They got together, twenty-seven years have been fired by a private detective They got together, twenty-seven years ago, upon Mr. Morgan's yacht, the Corsair, at dinner, and, when it was over, so delightful had been the experience, that Mr. Morgan suggested the club idea. After that the Corsairs dined once a month, for nine months or dined by a private detective several days ago, will be held to-morrow morning. Several have been fired by a private detective several days ago, will be held to-morrow morning. Several days ago, will be held to-morrow morning. Several hundred strikers will form a function of the following the foll every year at clubs or hotels, and quite often upon the Corsair. "In the membership of the club were men of affairs, professional and statesmen. As guests often there would be others of equal prominence. there house. At the dinners the utmost good will prevailed. Everyone felt free to express himself unrestrainedly and deep confidences were oftentimes given oftentimes given with perfect freedom.

ness, of art and even of his own affairs, he did not hesitate to tell to dared the American garrison to ven-

Marathon race when he was hurt. He had run twenty-one miles. He collapsed, and examination showed a severe internal strain. He is at present assistant supervisor of the strain.

About 4,000 acres of farming land will be flooded. The 600 inhabitants all reached places of safety, it is reported. At all other points below Memphis the embankments are reported holding and conditions generally improved. North of Memphis, the river is receding at all points north of St.

Leves in Good Condition.

New Orleans, April 20.—Admitting that the volume of water coming down the Mississippi River was greater than ever before, C. McD. Townsend, president of the Mississippi River Cominto print. Besides the three survilitto print. Besides the dinner were William C. Whitnew, Seth B. French, C. D. Lanier, Frank Sturgis, General Boudinot, Senator Arthur Pue Gorman, Cowen, nearly all of whom have since died.

> POUR WOMEN AT WAR OVER PAGE MILLIONS.

The last of the Pages died in 1829. In the intervening eighty-four years the titles to many parts of the estate have become exceedingly complicated, the crown itself having declared ownership of certain portions under the old law of escheat.

The claimants are Agree Theodosic

The claimants are Agnes Theodosia The claimants are Agnes Theodosia Hill, the wife of John Belfit Hill; Charlotte Ann Tappenden, widow of Frederick Hamilton Tappenden; Mrs. Elizabeth Marlin, and Mrs. Caroline Gallant, wife of Morris Gallant.

The bill asks for an investigation by commission of the trust devised in the wil of Richard Page, which was executed June 22, 1803.

domination of these trunk lines in the matter of freight rates across our own continent.

"The British Foreign Office must

"The British Foreign Office must know that it hasn't a leg to stand upon in this controversy. It never would have been seriously pressed had it not been for the position taken by Senator Root and a few other distinguished Republicans.

"We have had too many angiomaniacs in this country cailing to the support of the British view. If we yield on one phase of the case we shall be called upon to yield on others. It we accede the British demands regarding our right to exempt our coastwise ships, then Great Britain will protest ships, then Great Britain will protest that provision which prohibits the use of the canal to railroad-owned steamof the canal to railroad-owned steamships. This is of equal importance to the country as it is through this prohibition that we will control our own internal commerce.

May Dictate Rates.

"Wipe that proviso from the canal act and the steamships of the Canadian railroads will sail the canadian railroads will.

dian railroads will sail through the canal from Atlantic ports to Victoria and absolutely dictate what the rates of the railroads will be. The community of interests between the American and the Canadian railroads will indicate exactly what sort of a dictation that would be.

"I believe this whole matter is a question of domestic concern, nothing more or less. It is because I believe that that I want to see the treaty abrogated under which the English people claim the right to participate in our local affairs."

REMARK CAUSES

[Special to The Times-Dispatch.]

Paterson, N. J., April 20 .- Much anxiety was caused to-day by William D. or to return here. The life-saving sta-Haywood, when he closed his address tion has received no request for as-sistance. The ice floe is fifteen miles was Haywood, when he closed his address to the striking silk mill operatives by wide, and no open water can be se

"And I shall depend upon all of you to be on hand at half-past 5 to-morrow morning."

PUBLIC HAS TIRED

When asked to explain this remark, Haywood replied, "Don't oversleep." Preparations have been taken to guard all of the silk mills and dye works, and while the municipal au-thorities express little anxiety, the mill owners are anxiously awaiting the coming of the hour named by "Hig Bill."

The funeral of Vischio, the striker to break up the meeting of the American Federation of Lebor scheduled for Monday night. The police have declared that they will not interfere in this unless the affair becomes a "rough

TROUBLE IS AVERTED.

Belligerent Moro Tribesmen Pacified and Persuaded to Disperse.

Washington, April 26.—Trouble with the Moros, the warlike Philippine "Mr. Morgan, as is well known, hated publicity, and that was the reason, down in his heart, for getting the Corsair Club together for these talks. What was in Mr. Morgan's mind as to affairs of the nation or State, of busi-

London, April 20.—Four claimants to the Page millions are named in connection with a proposal to take this long standing controversy to the llouse of Lords. A bill is being promoted asking for a commission to investigate the ownership of the estate, the value of which is put at $150,000,000.

The last of the Pages died in 1829. In the intervening eighty-four years the titles to many parts of the estate that titles to many parts of the estate have become exceedingly complicated, have become exceedingly complicated.

We Call Attention of Richmond's Music-Lovers

TO OUR NEW

SLOGAN

HOUSE That Made RICHMOND

he Corley Company

Musical"

HELD FAST IN ICE

Buffalo, N. Y. April 29—Twentynine freighters outbound for up-Lake points are held fast in the ice in Lake
Eric five miles from the harbor entrance. Some of the boats cleared
Friday, but the majority got away
Saturday. The ships are not considered to be in any immediate danger, although they are unable to proceed or to return here. The life-saving sta-the doorway of the Yorkshire Herald office at York. The wrapping, in-scribed "Votes for women," indicated its original

OBITUARY

Mrs. Mary C. Clement.

[Special to The Times-Dispatch.]

Salisbury, N. C., April 20.—Mrs. Mary C. Clement, wife of Dr. I., H. Clement, died at her home in Salisbury early this morning. Death was caused by pneumonia, and her condition had been serious for several days, but not until yesterday was hope lost. A number of skilled physicians here worked hard to save her life, and she was also attended by Dr. Mason, of Washington, D. C., a noted specialist, who was called to Salisbury. She is survived by her husband, Dr. L. H. Clement, a former president of the North Carolina Bar Association; by four sons and one sister. The sons are: Hayden Clement, of Salisbury, who was Assistant Attorney-General under Governor Glenn; Dr. Edward B. Clement, a practicing physician of Atlantic City, who was called here to be with his mother in her illness; Donald Clement, engaged in business in Salisbury, and Louis H. Clement, Jr., a student at the State university. The selector is the state university.

the department say the arms of the addinor state, of business, of art and even of his own arfairs of the nation or state, of business, of art and even of his own arfairs, and even of his own arfairs of the nation. In a critical situation of things that puzzled the wise ones of the into a marvelous penetrative of things that puzzled the wise ones of the into an arms of things that puzzled the wise ones of the into an arms of things that puzzled the wise ones of the into an arms of things that puzzled the wise ones of the into an arms of things that puzzled the wise ones of the into an arms of the into arms of Clement, Jr., a student at the State university. The sister is Mrs. L. H

Willie A. Price, of Wilmington, N. C., and two sons, John T. and P. W. F. Wood, both of Richmond. Funeral arrangements later.

GRIMES.—Died, April 21, at 1 o'clock A. M., MRS. J. J. GRIMES, of 1317 West Cary Street.

Funeral notice later.

College.

Dr. Fred Bell.

[Special to The Times-Dispatch.]

Staunton, Va., April 20.—Dr. Fred Bell, of Bridgewater, whose auto turned turtle with him last August while on his way from Staunton to Bridgewater and fractured his skull, and who had since lingered, died Friday night at his father's home.